Church Leaders' Seminar

2nd July 9.30am - 2.00pm
Christ Church, Westbourne

Establishing Leadership Training in the Local Church
Adrian Reynolds -
Training Director at FIEC

For our Leaders' Seminar in 2019 we are delighted that Adrian Reynolds the Training Director for the Fellowship of Independent Evangelical Churches has agreed to share his experience of establishing leadership training in a 'local' church. Church leadership is a colossal responsibility. There are so many initiatives, people and problems that jostle for the limited resources available. When tough decisions need to be made it can be easier to consign training to the list of things to jettison.

Music will be led by teams from five local churches. There is no charge for the meetings although we take an offering to cover the costs. Our local Christian Books and Media retailer Keith Jones will provide a bookstall at all events.

He has become one of the most highly recognisable bible teachers of his generation in the Christian world.
